ORDER NO. 2017-1

Upon agreement of the magistrate judges, and approval of the Chief Judge, the imbalances of the social security dockets of the magistrate judges were to be distributed in two phases. Pursuant to General Order 2016-23, social security cases were reassigned as outlined in said order on October 27, 2016, thereby completing Phase I.

In accordance with Phase II of the rebalancing of social security cases, effective April 1, 2017, Magistrate Judges Baughman and Limbert will provide five social security cases each for reassignment to Magistrate Judges Greenberg and Parker. These cases must be zero to six months in age. These ten cases will be randomly reassigned as follows: seven to Magistrate Judge Greenberg and three to Magistrate Judge Parker.

The social security referral cases selected by Magistrate Judges Limbert and Baughman are listed below and shall be returned to the Clerk's Office to be randomly reassigned as stated above:

4:16cv2580-JRA	Belcher v. Commissioner of Social Security
1:16cv2761-JRA	Cook v. Commissioner of Social Security
4:16cv3070-JRA	McDaniel v. Commissioner of Social Security
1:17cv372-PAG	Garrett v. Commissioner of Social Security
5:17cv604-PAG	Kinsley v. Commissioner of Social Security
5:16cv2869-SL	Gamble v. Commissioner of Social Security
1:16cv3066-DCN	Whelpley v. Commissioner of Social Security
5:17cv114-DCN	Spears v. Commissioner of Social Security
1:17cv474-JG	Rodarmer v. Commissioner of Social Security
1:17cv500-PAG	Clark v. Commissioner of Social Security

IT IS SO ORDERED.
